For the month of November, students will learn new vocabulary related to hunting, "La chasse". Words such as "perdrix/partridge", cheureuil/deer" and "arc/bow" will be taught to students to allow them to play a game during lunch time where they will test their new learning. Do you know any words related to hunting in French? Ask you child to tell you what they learned and watch for pictures of our activity on Facebook at the end of November. Bon mois de novembre!

Perth-Andover Middle Schools framework for all things positive and good, focuses on a month-long teaching and learning unit about diversity and respect. Diversity is one of the most important aspects of our world. It is what makes us unique and interesting. We embrace diversity. Respect for diversity means understanding and valuing the differences between people, cultures, religions, races, ect. It means accepting everyone for who they are. our school's approach to diversity and respect include teaching lessons in traditional sense and more importantly, modeling. Staff and teachers teach, model, and reinforce celebrations of differences and respect for all. During November, we will carry out intentional acts of kindness that promote these components of our PBIS structure. We practice, we teach, we "talk it up". We monitor who is doing well and who needs a little more support to be at their best. At our end of month assembly, we will celebrate the successes with school wide acknowledgements, shout outs, certificates, games and prizes. And sometimes, ICE CREAM. PAMS BEARS love ice cream!!! Stay tuned to our newsletter, our social media platforms such as Instagram and Facebook, and our school website for pictures and other evidence of how PBIS is alive and well at Perth-Andover Middle School. We thank you all for your support.
